Knowledge Exchange–new!

- Connect with your peers on news and issues in the sector. Share information and find out who's doing what and what's working in Canada's nonprofits.

New publications from Imagine Canada:

- Philanthropic success stories in Canada / Julie Sperling, Michael H. Hall. Toronto : Imagine Canada, 2007. This first ever study of Canada's philanthropic successes shows us that philanthropy is not an exclusive arena; both the wealthy along with regular, everyday Canadians can make a difference in their communities.
- Imagine Canada's revised Ethical Fundraising and Financial Accountability Code is now available! Read the complementary discussion paper about standards and their link to accountability, transparency and public trust or the two-page fact sheet for a quick overview. Click here for more information.
- New! Imagine Canada's Insurance and Liability Resource Centre. Find practical tools and resources, research, training and background information on insurance, liability, and risk management in the nonprofit sector. Explore the site or search its special collection.
- Business contributions to Canadian communities : findings from a qualitative study of current practices. (February 2007). Find out how businesses are supporting charities and nonprofits, why they do it, and where the challenges are.

Imagine Canada is a national charity that looks into and out for Canada 's charitable and nonprofit sector. We deliver research that puts the sector on the map and raises its profile in the minds of Canadians. We shape public policy and build support, encourage collaboration and engagement from businesses, government and individuals. And we deliver tools, resources and networking opportunities directly to nonprofits and charities to build and strengthen the sector one organization at a time. Together, they contribute to social progress and vibrant communities.
